Commendations

We are thankful for Clint and the insights our school gained from the SchoolRight survey. The data was relevant, clear, and actionable. The value of this data will only continue to grow over time as we track growth and improvement in the years ahead.

Ryan Hall, Ed.D. | Head of School | Cedar Ridge Christian School (IA)

It was a pleasure working with SchoolRight to gather valuable data that supports both our school and its mission. Clint was thorough and helpful every step of the way. This insight helps us tackle unknowns and highlight strengths to build on.

Dr. Andrew Smalley | Head of School | Veritas Classical School (FL)

Thank you, Clint! We appreciate your thorough attention to detail and the evaluations that have served us so well. These tools have been invaluable in helping our board define clear, future outcome goals that will enable us to continue our pursuit of excellence and growth.

Lisa Sanford | Board Chair | Grace Christian Academy (IL)

We have used SchoolRight for over a decade now. They are easy to work with and are truly a partner in our quest for excellence in Christian education. The data has proven invaluable in our decision-making and strategic planning.

Brian Bell | Head of Schools | Redlands Christian Schools (CA)

Your survey tool helped us build meaningful multi-year data that continues to serve our planning efforts. The results from our SchoolRight survey have been instrumental in supporting our new Strategic Plan.

Jason Barney | Head of School | Coram Deo Academy (IN)

The SchoolRight surveys gave us the information we needed to make necessary changes to improve our school. Rather than operate completely from subjective opinion or hearsay, we now have the quantitative and qualitative data to make informed decisions.

Dr. Al King | Headmaster | Oklahoma Christian School (OK)

The quality of the analysis and the reliability of the data gave us meaningful insight into our school community. The survey results were incredibly helpful as we completed our dual-international accreditation self-study.

Denise Strickland | Head of School | Cahaya Bangsa Classical School (Indonesia)

We love using SchoolRight surveys. The service is excellent and the results give us a quick insight into where we are doing well and where we can continue to work.

Karen Hagestad, MEd | Head of School | International School Honduras
